

Provision for International Students Report

School Name: Avonside Girls' High School

Profile Number: 324

Location: Christchurch

Background

The Education Review Office reviews schools that are signatories to the Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021 established under section 534 of the Education and Training Act 2020.

Findings

The school is a signatory to the Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021 established under section 534 of the Education and Training Act 2020. The school has attested that it complies with all aspects of the Code and has completed an annual self review of its implementation of the Code.

At the time of this review there were 34 international students attending the school.

Avonside Girls' High School has effective processes in place to evaluate the quality of provision for international students including established systems for collecting and responding to stakeholder voice.

International students are well cared for, well integrated into the school community, and participate fully in a variety of cultural, leadership, and sporting activities. Most of the school's international students stay for more than a year. They are guided in appropriate subject selection to meet their learning and qualification goals.

The School Board receives regular reports based on internal evaluation of the international programme, including student progress and achievement information.
